ACTION CHARGING FRAUD.

A writ has been issued in the District Court at the instance of Geo. W. Waggoner against John Morris, real estate agent of Edmonton, and Gabrielle Brunant of Port Providence, Alberta, for alleged fraud in connection with the alleged forgery or transfers of Edmonton properties, the details of which were published in the Bulletin some weeks ago.

Between March 10th and June 10th, it is alleged Morris, without the knowledge or consent of the plaintiff, forged the document to several parties. It is charged with forging the name of the owner and substituting that of the co-defendant, with intent to defraud and occupation of the owner of the property at the time of the transfer, and with installing the changes which were made with the initials of a party purporting to be witness to the transfer.

TEN YEARS IN THE YUKON.

After an absence of ten years spent in the Yukon, Joe Paradi, formerly resident in Fort Saskatchewan, returned to this city last night. Arriving on the late train from the south, Mr. Paradi had little opportunity when seen last night to relate impressions of the many changes that had taken place in the last ten years. All that he could say was that he was bewildered by what he saw.

"It is not merely that there have been changes. The whole place is changed. I feel lost and am unable to recognize anything that I see. When I left Edmonton it was a very quiet little place, and I come back to find it a big city, with many handsome buildings that have been erected here."

Mr. Paradi came first to this district with his parents twenty-six years ago, when all that existed of Edmonton was the old Hudson's Bay Company's trading post.

His parents came from Montreal and settled on land four miles from Fort Saskatchewan, which they have occupied ever since.

Leaving the homestead in 1900, Mr. Paradi has worked ever since in the mining camp of the Yukon. It is his intention to settle in this district.

SPLENDID LAND SOUTHWEST.

J. H. Vauclair, who has located on the northeast quarter of section 35, township 40, range 2, west of the 5th meridian, made the following statement in Immigration offices yesterday regarding the district:

"There is a quantity of good land located on land four miles from Fort Saskatchewan. There is also some choice land in townships 40 and 41, range 4, west of the 5th, and most of it is covered with timber of a very good growth. In townships 40 and 41, range 4, there are many quarters that one could find where from ten to fifteen acres of almost clear land that is ready for the plough could be picked out. There is no real prairie land as the whole of it has at some previous time been covered with timber, but the trees having gone through the district it is not difficult to clear it. The burnt logs and stumps.

"Water can be obtained at from ten to fifteen feet, which is clear and pure. There is also a quantity of coal along the Strathcona creek. There are good trails leading into the district, and it is not difficult to get a wagon through."

A NO LIQUOR LICENSE UNDO.

Delegates from eight local No License Clubs organized at Hayer, Hayer, Kinman, Rouds, Camrose, New Norway, Old Laker and Viking met at Camrose last week and organized the Alberta No Liquor License Union. The following declaration of Principles was approved and officers elected.

"We believe that the liquor traffic is a moral and commercial evil which has no standing in the fundamental law of any country but is recognized as a public nuisance.

"We believe that the people are guilty of gross negligence in permitting it to exist and that the government becomes a partner in a colossal crime when it issues a license for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

"The object of the Alberta No Liquor License Union shall be to use its moral influence and all legal means at its disposal to prevent the issuance of any liquor licenses in the province of Alberta."

The officers elected are: Prof. A. Quello, Camrose, president; Rev. T. T. Carlson, Camrose, vice-president; P. H. Isakson, Edmonton, secretary; Thos. Kinman, Kinman, treasurer. These, together with Leifing Ostad, New Norway, constitute the executive board.

Attention was called to the fact that the work of organizing had not proceeded as fast as it might have done owing to the fact that much time had been spent in preparatory work.

This organization does not believe in regulating the traffic. It will work exclusively to get the sale of liquor abolished. It believes that prevention is better than cure and will therefore direct attention to the prevention of licenses being issued.

New Norway the local No License Club has done much active work to prevent a bar being opened in the new hotel which is being built there. So far no application for a license has been made.

The application at Hayer was protested and every point was contested. Throughout the city for these ostensible purposes must reach the Aids, the Aids should be to be taxed. The United Aids are doing a great work.

The scope of their operations extend over a large field, but in view of their limited supplies there should also be a limit to the demands. If United Aids are to be expected to look after the case of all physical unfortunate, then some of the money collected throughout the city for these ostensible purposes must reach the Aids, the Aids should be to be taxed. The United Aids are doing a great work.

AIDS RESOURCES TAXED.

Secretary Turnbull, of the United Aids, has written the Bulletin, outlining the difficulties under which that organization is working in connection with persons requiring relief who come to the city from outside points. The letter is as follows:

"There is scarcely a day passes, but that the resources of United Aids are being taxed to their utmost limit. It is a constant struggle to keep the Aids under their guardianship. Here is an illustration: On Tuesday morning the officers of the Salvation Army made an impulsive demand on the United Aids for the protection and support of a man, wife and two children. The man was found, no medical investigation, to be physically incapable of supporting himself or his family.

The United Aids have no other resource but to take hold of this family from a humane standpoint, and have placed the man in the hospital, the mother and two children under such care as lies at the disposal of the Aids. The family is totally destitute, having been in the country 20 years. They have no claim whatever on the purse of the city, as they were brought direct from Edison, and at once become a public charge.

Many audiences have taken place with that department of the Provincial Government having supervisory control of this condition of life, but they declare their inability to provide for such emergencies, because of the very small appropriation provided by the Government for provincial work. Nevertheless, it is becoming more and more apparent that from the provincial purse some provision must be made for the relief of cases imported into municipalities.

Here is a glaring illustration of a condition of life not permitted in any poor office state of the old world, where a man has to journey sixty miles before he can find for himself and family a haven of rest. Whilst the Aids never complain of providing relief for the destitute of the city, it is obviously unfair that the very limited resources of the Aids should be so taxed by an element having only a transitory claim upon the city. Until some provision is made this case alone will tax the Aids to more than $3.00 per day.

But a few days ago from another organization operating in the city an application was received to pay a sum for the support of two unfortunate, and, in view of the fact that in the demand, would have meant $50 for one month. It can be readily understood the Aids declined to be so taxed. The United Aids are doing a great work.

The scope of their operations extend over a large field, but in view of their limited supplies there should also be a limit to the demands. If United Aids are to be expected to look after the case of all physical unfortunate, then some of the money collected throughout the city for these ostensible purposes must reach the Aids, the Aids should be to be taxed. The United Aids are doing a great work.

As an example, on Wednesday of this week United Aids found itself with a single destitute and physical inhabitable, none of whom had any claim upon the city's purse, four of whom had been brought into the city a distance of sixty miles, and yet to all of whom the Aids were compelled to pay some attention. Efforts were made to elicit the assistance of the Provincial Government, as these cases were distinctly belonging to their province, and several hours were wasted in a fruitless attempt to obtain for these people such common fare as is provided for similar conditioned people in every civilized country throughout the world. It is very desirable houses to house applications should be prevented, and the Aids have to a very great extent succeeded in accomplishing this, yet it is quite evident the Provincial Government will have to make more budget provision than has hitherto been the case.

BAN PLACED ON FIGHT PICTURES

Many Cities of U.S. Prohibit Showing Moving Pictures of Johnson-Jeffries Fight

Chicago, Ill., July 6.—Moving pictures of the Johnson-Jeffries fight will be prohibited in many of the large cities of the country through fear of the renewal of race bitterness as well as a possible lowering of the moral tone of the people. This means a heavy loss to the syndicate which purchased the rights to reproduce the fight, paying Jeffries $100,000, and Johnson $150,000. They also gave Richard and Gleason, the promoters of the fight, each a one-sixth interest in the pictures. It was said the promoters expected to clear up $1,000,000 in the next month.

Capital Raises the Ban First.

The first place in which the ban was raised against the pictures was Washington, D.C., and Cincinnati. Mayor Sylvester, chief of police of the District of Columbia, last night said he would inform the board of censors of the moving picture theatre in Washington that they could not reproduce the fight scenes. Mayor Schwab, of Cincinnati, said he would not allow the pictures because they would "race race hate." Action was taken to bar them from Atlanta, Georgia, and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, followed suit. A Johannesburg, South Africa, moving picture show firm refused to present the pictures because of the latest race catharsis.

Baltimore and St. Louis.

The board of police commissioners of Baltimore will ask the mayor to forbid the exhibition, and public sentiment in St. Louis is so strongly against the pictures that a national movement is being started there to prohibit all such shows. Detroit's mayor indicated he might forbid all exhibitions. The Society of Christian Endeavor, which has branches in every city and town in the country as well as in many foreign countries, has begun a campaign against the exhibition.

Against Statute Law.

The Boston branch of the society, through its secretary, William Shaw, today will address a petition to the governor of every state asking that the pictures be barred from their respective states on the ground that they are reproductions of a form of entertainment against which there are statute laws. A personal petition will be filed with Governor Brewer, Massachusetts, and Mayor Fitzgerald, of Boston, today.

AUSTRIAN HOUSEWIVES BOYCOTT THE BUTCHER

Austrians Inevitably at Greatly Increased Cost of Food—Organized Housewives of Vienna Boycott Butcher—Will Present Monster Petition to Parliament.

Vienna, July 6.—An organized boycott has been declared against the butchers of lower Austria, and it is spreading rapidly through the smaller towns.

The housewives of Krems, Waldviertel, Hainburg, Pöchlarn, Stettin and other places refuse to submit to the exorbitant demands of the local meat men, and have arranged to make large collective purchases of meat outside the town.

The local authorities and large companies of labor are aiding the movement.

The butcher companies, the largest manufacturing concern in Austria, has shipped several thousand pounds of bacon and pork to the working people of Vienna.

The Waldfrau movement, as it is called, is likely to spread to other provinces, and a national organization may be formed.

Viennese are collecting one million signatures to a petition which will be submitted to parliament, protesting against the intolerable and unjust increase in the price of food.

Thousands of persons are joining the organization, subscribing four cents each towards its expense.

CITY THREATENED WITH LEGAL ACTIONS

W. Salgoon Will Sue for Damages for Injury Sustained on Bad Pavement, and J. D. McKinnon Will Enforce to Collect for Alleged Wrongful Dismissal.

The city, which has been free from litigation for some time past, is again threatened with two lawsuits, the first of which was given at the regular meeting of the City Commissioners yesterday afternoon.

Henry, Newell and Boston wrote stating that they intended "suing a writ against the city on behalf of W. Salgoon, who sustained serious injury by being thrown from a bicycle at the corner of Jasper and Queen's avenues in the latter part of May.

The solicitor stated that the accident was caused by the bicycle striking one of the holes in the pavement between the street car rails, where the wooden blocks had been removed.

Mr. Salgoon is still confined to the house as the result of the accident. McKinnon & Co., acting on behalf of J. D. McKinnon, ex-butcher, wrote that they would bring a writ for wrongful dismissal unless settlement were made within a reasonable time.

The cause of Mr. McKinnon's dismissal had been the removal of the request of the Commissioners, which were varied at various times with the building boys.

Information Regarding Cars. The city has been ordered to remove the street cars from the utility commission is taking steps to better inform the public of the operation of the cars.

There will be no suspension of the street cars from the utility commission is taking steps to better inform the public of the operation of the cars.

There was a big batch of communications for consideration and though the meeting was in session all six o'clock a large number of matters had to be left over.

R. Smidley, a tailor on Norwood boulevard, whose leader for women's clothing was slightly lower than that of the Standard Clothing Co., whose leader was recommended for consideration, appeared before the Commissioners and protested against the award.

He said he had been in the city for three years and paid a business tax during that time. The matter was allowed to stand for the time.

The matter was later taken up by Chief Davidson and he told the board that from his personal knowledge of the two firms he recommended the tender to the Standard Clothing Co.

It was decided, in view of the statement of Mr. Smidley, that he be given half the tender and the other half be awarded to the Standard Clothing Co.

OWNERS MUST PAY WATER RATES.

A resident of Ottawa Avenue, John Skinner, appeared and presented against a water account which is a part of his own to the city.

The waterworks department will be instructed that all dealings with property will be with the owners of property. This will take effect on the first of October. In the meantime the city solicitor will look into the by-law having regard thereto.

The Exhibition Association manager, A. G. Harrison, wrote asking that the Commissioners sanction the building of certain structures by day labor.

An option on the remainder of Alberta College property between that which the city has already been obtained and the C.N.R. was furnished for the city to consider. This will be forwarded to the council. The entire option is now $12,500.

John Chalmers, government engineer, wrote asking for a permit for a new building being erected near the present parliament buildings. It was decided that this be forwarded on payment of the regular fee, which in the past the government have not been required to pay.

To Collect Special Taxes. Commissioner Butchart reported that he had gone over the special taxes which were submitted as uncollectable by the city assessor some weeks ago. The city solicitor was instructed to take action to collect against Henry Gordon, Chipman, Corbett & Co., Red Deer, J. R. Edmondson, C. H. Russell and O. H. Edmondson.

V. A. Long, portrait painter, who recently painted the portrait of Premier Miller, offered to paint a portrait of the first mayor of Edmonton, W. M. McCallister, for $150. The offer was passed on to the council.

Condy & McKinnon wrote that the western end of Jasper avenue was blocked by the paving operation and this prevented a good road to the cemetery. The matter was referred to the commissioner handling.

It was decided that the chief of the fire department, H. G. Davidson, be given permission to attend the International Firemen's convention at Syracuse, N. Y.

The utilities commissioner inquired why the lights on the alarm house were burning all day. He thought a saving could be made by using the lights only at night.

Commissioner Butchart was instructed to make inquiries as to the cost.

Former Rector of Laval Dead. Quebec, July 6.—Montsieur Lachance, rector of Laval University, died this morning. He had been ill for the past two months, but recently had been pronounced out of danger. He is now on his way to a speedy recovery.

By the death of Mons. Lachance Laval University and the Catholic Church lose one of their chief dignitaries, and the province one of its most learned scholars. He was known all over Canada as one of the best authorities on mineralogy.

PRESENT NEW WAGE SCALE.

Trainsmen on United States Road Will Ask for Advance.

Chicago, July 6.—Nearly 25,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, on the roads west of Chicago, Duluth and St. Paul, will present a new wage scale to the companies before August 1st. They will ask from 20 to 40 per cent increase in wages.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainsmen and the Order of Railroad Conductors are also making arrangements for a new wage scale.

The engineers at their convention in Detroit several weeks ago, instructed the international officials to arrange for presenting the new wage scale.

After the western roads have settled the engineers expect to go into the east and south-east. This campaign will last for more than a year.

Mr. Salgoon is still confined to the house as the result of the accident. McKinnon & Co., acting on behalf of J. D. McKinnon, ex-butcher, wrote that they would bring a writ for wrongful dismissal unless settlement were made within a reasonable time.

The cause of Mr. McKinnon's dismissal had been the removal of the request of the Commissioners, which were varied at various times with the building boys.
